SUNSTONE
PLACE

With a population of just under 14,000, Ferndale is one of the fastest growing cities in the Northwest and is the third largest city in Whatcom County. Geographically located between Seattle, WA and Vancouver, BC, Ferndale has much to offer. Fishing, boating, camping, hiking, hunting, skiing, bird watching and golfing are just minutes away.

With its' small town charm, great school system, amazing parks, easy commute and affordable living, Ferndale is a wonderful place to raise a family or to retire in. Ferndale is considered an industrial city and with strong economic growth, breathtaking views of Mt. Baker and the San Juan Islands, it has become one of the most desirable cities to live in in Whatcom County.

Sunstone Place is located just minutes from historical downtown and the Nooksack River. A vibrant one of a kind community, Sunstone Place is the new standard of community living in Ferndale. A community of 44 spacious two and three bedroom condominiums spread over 11 buildings with plenty of parking and green space. Some units come with outdoor decks which are perfect for entertaining on those warm summer days. This is a neighborly place, a place that respects the value of community and celebrates the fact that Ferndale is a great place to live. With easy access to the I-5 and other arteries within the City, Sunstone Place is conveniently located to access restaurants, grocery stores, coffee shops, parks and shopping.

Students living at Sunstone Place will attend Eagleridge Elementary School, Horizon Middle School and Ferndale High School. Sunstone Place is located within 15 minutes of Western Washington University, Whatcom Community College and Bellingham Technical College.

From the I-5 exit, head west on Main Street through town and Sunstone Place is situated on the south side of Main Street just west of Douglas Road.
